

FALL 1972 OCT.

SITE PREPARATION—A young man pedals past heavy equipment on the YMCA's building site at the northwest corner of the intersection of Washington and George Streets yesterday on his way home from school. The lot is being graded in preparation of future construction. Early plans call for game courts for tennis, handball, squash, volleyball and shuffleboard as well as a natatorium, gymnasium, as money is available. (Evening Sun Photo)